

CAI welcomes a new chapter!

Introducing CAI Canada.

Join CAI Canada today!

Canada is the second largest country in the world with a population of 36 million people. According to the 2011 National Household Survey (NHS), 1,615,485 households (12.1%) lived (either as owners or renters) in condominiums.

Further, one in eight households are located in condominium communities and this trend is expected to increase.

With that increase comes the growing demand for community association resources in

WHERE CANADIANS LIVE

1 in 8 households lives in a condominium

53% of Canadian households in Toronto, Vancouver and Montreal live in condominiums

High-rise apartments are the #1 source of housing in Toronto

Low-rise apartments are the #1 source of housing in Quebec

Canada. The CAI Canada Chapter was developed so that local Canadian business communities, governments, university students, and others who live and work in community associations can benefit from CAI's unparalleled resources, education, training, and credentials.

Headquartered in Toronto, Ontario, CAI Canada will serve all ten Canadian provinces.

The CAI Canada Chapter offers professional networking, education, accreditation, and international resources, including CAI publications and conferences with community association professionals around the world.